ALUMNI'S COMING REUNION,

Grand Rennion at the Hotel Jefferson on April 17th.

PRES'T CLEVELAND MAY BE PRESENT

As One of the Speakers, as Well as Secretary of the Navy Herbert-The Affair Will be on a Grand Scale and Will Eclipse All Previous Occasions.

Friday night, April 17th, the Alumni Society of the University of Virginia will give its annual banquet at the Jefferson. It had been intended to hold, this reunion on the 13th instant, which is the date of the birth of Thomas Jefferson, the immortal founder of the University, but it was found impossible to get ready in time, so the affair was unwillingly postponed until the 17th.

At 8.30 o'clock on that night fully 150 people are expected to assemble at the magnificent hotel, when, as has been the

Half an hour will be spent in sipping the pe-cullarly Virginia beverage and exchang-ing greetings, after which, about 9 o'clock, the company will sit down to the cholcest spread which the Jefferson can provide. In addition to the members of the so-ciety, there will be ten invited guests, five of whom are expected to respond to toasts, which will be announced by J*dge James C. Lamb, president of the alumni, who will preside and act as toastmaster.

DISTINGUISHED SPEAKERS. Responses have not yet been received from those gentlemen who have been invited to speak, but it is likely that the following will respond to the toasts:

DEEP RUN HUNT CLUB.

The Members Have Another Enjoyab'e Chase and Some fine Jumping.

The members of the Deep Run Hunt lub held another splendid run yesterday terrorn. The meet was at the kennels after on. The meet was at the scinets at 4 o'ciock, and a few minutes later a field of twenty-one mounts followed the swift hounds across the country in a scuthwesterly direction. The ground was rather heavy, on account of the recent rain, and more ditches than usual had to be grossed; quite a number of fences also had to be taken. In a roundabout way, and passing through several farms. way, and passing through several farms, the field finally reached Mr. Grant's farm, just below Rio Vista, and after a chase across its fields, through brüshes, and over various obstacles, the party returned to the club-house, where a short rest was well appreciated. Probably owing to the strong wind that prevailed through the latter part of the af-terroon, so lady riders were in the field.

Those who did turn out, however, had a thoroughly enjoyable time.
Those who took part in the run were Major Otway S. Allen, J. R. J. Anderson, S. H. Handocck (master of foz-hounds), G. B. Hobson, De Graften Hobson, Saunders Hobson, W. M. Leathley, J. A. Reyndra Hobson, W. M. Leathley, M. M. Leathley, M. M. Leathley, M. M. Leathle

The members of the club will hold a meeting to-morrow night, when the question is to be decided whether the club is going to lease its present quarters for another period of years or it will accept the offer of Major Ginter, under which that gentleman proposed to build a clubhouse, with all the necessary appurtenances at Edgewood.

BABY RECEPTION AND SILVER TEA. A Unique and Interesting Entertainment

A Unique and Interesting Entertainment for the Free Nursery.

The Baby Reception to be held for the benefit of the Day Nursery and Free Kindergarten in the parlors of the Woman's Christian Association, on Thursday, April 23d, is looked forward to as one of the most delightful of the spring entertainments. The dainty fittle darlings of Richmond's nurseries will be going God's work in helping to lift the shadow of poverty from the poor little things who are suffering under its lifs. Mr. Foster, the photographer, will give four prizes, as follows: First prize, for the prettlest baby, a pastel portrait; second prize, for the handsomest baby, a water-color portrait; third prize, for the healthiest baby, one dozen cabinet photos: fourth prize, for the fattest baby, one-half dozen cabinet photos.

These and other prizes will be awarded by the judges. After the reception, there will be munsic, recitations, refreshments, and a doil drill by small children. There will be hundreds of the pictures of children on the walls of the pariors. The babies, their mothers and grandmothers, fathers and gandfathers, are expected to bring ten cents each in silver.

The walls of hall and pariors will be covered with baby photographs, and besides the prizes for the babies, prizes will also be given for the pretirest pictures. MAIL CARRIER ARRESTED. A Decoy Prepared to Catch Him-The Gloucester Clerk's Office.

Gloucester Clerk's Office.

GLOUCESTER COURTHOUSE, VA., April 4.—Special.—Rowland Scott, driver of the mail cart between Shackelford's, King and Queen county, and this place, was arrested this afternoon on the charge of robbing the mail sacks.

Packages have been arriving in a bad condition for a long time. The post-master's wife heard from her cook that Scott had been making presents of finger rings. This caused the postmasters at West Point, Shackelford's, and Gloucester Courthouse to keep a careful watch over the condition of packages which came in the fourth-class mail sacks.

Mr. A. G. Ware, postmaster at West Point, and Mr. Marston, postmaster at Shackelford's, came to Gloucester Courthouse and committed with the postmaster at this place. A peculiar method of tying the knot in the cord to the sacks was adopted. It was soon discovered that the knots were daily tampered with. On yesterday Mr. Marston fixed up a decoy package containing an old silver watch without hands, then called up Mr. W. S. Ware, postmaster at Gloucester Courthouse, and described the package to him. Upon the arrival of the mail here the watch was not to be found. Upon the arrival of the mail here the watch was not to be found.

Purchased by Col. A, J. Ford and M. W. C. McDowell and Highly Improved. Purchased by Col. A, J. Ford and Mr. W. C. McDowell and Highly Laproved.
WAYNESBORO, VA., April 4,—Special.
—To the general public and especially that portion of it who, when the zephyrs of summer begin to linger too long, and "that tired feeling" creeps on a pace, and want to shake the dust of the cities from their sandais and seek the invigorating breezes of mountain climes, it may be of interest to know that great preparations and great expectations await them at the "Frunswick" Hotel. This well-known summer resort has been purchased by Colonel Ford and Mr. W. C. McDowell, of Ford's Hotel, Richmond, whose familiarity and long experience with hotel business gives ample assurance that in future the place will take front rank with the mountain resorts of Virginia.

The style of the firm is Ford & McDowell, and while the Brunswick will feel the guiding hand of both Colonel Ford and the popular McDowell, there will be no change of eithers' connection at Ford's in Richmond. Indeed the hotels will be run as integral parts of each other. Under the supervision of the management work is now in progress on extensive alterations and additions, which will be completed in time to throw the place open to the public the 1st of June.

In addition to numerous changes and alterations in the original building, such as perfect ventilation in the halls, enlarging the lobby, etc., an additional building one hundred by forty feet, will be added.

The interior will be handsomely decorated and furnished throughout in oak and cherry, and supplied with every modern improvement and appliance. It is safe to say that the most interesting and attractive feature of the place will be the heautiful park and spring which adjoin the hotel. This portion of the property is Colonel Ford's special pet and province, and upon it he spares neither work, time or money to develop it into the most charming and delightful of splyan retreats. When we come to describe the heauties of pature which linger around this lovely spot, language fails to do it beauties of pature which linger around this lovely spot, language falls to do it justice; it must be seen to be appreciated. The park embraces an area of about twelve acres, bounded on the south by South river. A slight declivity terminates in a lovely glade by the riverside, in the centre of which is a beautiful sheet of spring water some forty yards wide by one hundred long. In the centre of this lake Colonel Ford has made a beautiful artificial island, connected with the mainhand by a rustic bridge.

on the banks of the lake a spacious and elegant dancing pavilion, one hundred by forty feet has been erected, which will be enclosed with glass. Adjoining the pavillion is a large double bowling alley and shuffle board.

The management will be in the hands of Mr. McDowell, under the name of "Ford's Lythia Springs." This name has been selected from the fact that a recent analysis has demonstrated that the waters of the spring previously alluded to, contain medicinal properties of the highest order. It is a matter of congratulation to the peole of Waynesboro, as well as the general public, that this valuable property has passed into the hands of the present management as the means and ability at their command, will undoubtedly establish a resort whose reputation and pestige resort whose reputation and pestige will extend far and wide.
